

UMLING LA RIDE 5798m, HIGHEST IN THE WORLD

Conquer the World's Highest Mountain Pass

Experience the thrill of riding on the world's highest roads to the highest motorable passes. Begin your adventure in Leh, a centuries-old town in the heart of the Himalayas, once a part of the Silk Route. Immerse yourself in Ladakh's stark beauty, surrounded by towering mountains, high-altitude villages, and vibrant monasteries.

Explore Ladakh, visiting the 1000-year-old Alchi Monastery and staying near the equally ancient Lamayuru Monastery. Venture into the remote Zaskar Valley, once accessible only by trekking. Traverse challenging mountain passes, explore remote villages, and witness breathtaking scenery.

Cross the Zaskar Valley, ascending to Shinku La, which connects Zaskar to Lahaul. Embark on the Manali-Leh highway, passing through high passes and stopping at the serene Tsokar Lake before reaching the world's highest Ramsar site, Tsomoriri Lake.

Continue your journey to Hanle village, home to the world's highest observatory. From here, ascend to the sky on the world's highest road, Umling La, at 5798 meters.

Relax on the shores of the beautiful Pangong Lake, divided between India and China. Explore the exotic NubraValley, enjoying the sand dunes and a camel ride. Conclude your tour in Leh, not before conquering the mighty Khardung La, once considered the world's highest motorable pass.
